INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing only aggravate disease and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861. —J. NEWTON BROWN

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, has been saved by the Bitters.

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.

Terrible Indifference

We have looked over all our Democratic exchanges, anticipating a fearful outburst of angry indignation against their pet model Democrat, Governor Seymour who at last as it seems has actually been shooting down like dogs, without trial or constitutional forms several of his constituents. Where is the just wrath of the sticklers for legal privileges? Why don't they utter their loud sounding anathemas because of this high handed invasion of personal rights? What had these "misguided brethren"—the victims of Seymour's unholy rage—what had they done that they should be so cruelly murdered? They were simply doing as they chose—exercising their inalienable rights. To be sure they were in a state of rebellion—refusing to submit to the rightly constituted authorities, killing, stealing and laying a fair city waste. But what of that? Had Seymour a right to set the laws at defiance and shoot them without trial? Ah we fear the poor man is a lost Democrat never more to be named except with Beast Butler and such like as the 'Bloody Seymour.' He has dared to put down a rebellion by force, and not by throwing olive branches at it till it subsided in sweet and tranquil peace. Horatio you must go to the wall—your day is over, your glory is departed. Never more can you be the admired pet of consistent Copperheads.

The Portland and Milwaukie Macadamized Road Company

A special meeting of the stockholders of this Corporation was held yesterday afternoon, at the U S District Court Room in this city, a large majority of the stock being represented. A G Richardson, Esq, President of the Board of Directors made a full and elaborate report of their action and of the progress, condition and prospects of the road. The work done has been faithfully and economically performed—the steam ferry boat will shortly be placed at the terminus and the road opened for public travel.

The ballasting with stone will proceed as rapidly as possible, though it is not probable that this will be accomplished before the rainy season. The Company have purchased an admirable steam crushing machine, which will greatly increase their facilities for this part of the work.

The financial condition of the Corporation was fully and satisfactorily explained, and after answers and explanations by the Directors to some inquiries suggested by different stockholders, on motion of H W Corbett, Esq, it was voted that the Company hereby expresses its entire satisfaction with the action of the Directors, and is grateful for the industry, zeal and efficiency manifested by them in its behalf.

The same gentleman offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:

Resolved, That the stockholders of this Corporation respectfully tender their thanks to A G Richardson, the late President of the Board of Directors, for the constant, energetic and faithful care taken by him of the interests of the Company in building its road, and in the general superintendence of its business, and sincerely regret that his removal from Portland will deprive them of his services, and the community of his genial society.

The resignations of Messrs Richardson and G F Thomas were accepted, and A. M STARR of this city, and W J BRADBURY of Milwaukie were elected to fill the vacancies.

After an eloquent appeal from Mr Grover, one of the Directors, to the stockholders, to be somewhat more prompt in the payment of assessments—made necessarily and solely for the benefit of members—and thus relieve the Managers from much embarrassment and perplexity, the Company adjourned.

We learn that at a meeting of the Directors held in the evening JOHN GREEN was elected President of the Board.

SPEECH OF JOHN BROUGH, UNION CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF OHIO.—We publish on the outside this morning, an extract from this excellent speech which we commend to the special perusal of those who may wish to learn from an insider—thoroughly acquainted with the purposes of the leaders—how entirely and adroitly the South and slavery managed the old Democratic party. It also shows most conclusively the absurdity of the pretence that the election of a Republican Administration caused the war.

NOT A WORD.—We are again without intelligence by telegraph—a storm on the plains is impassable—there is nothing worth quoting in the California papers, and as for news in Portland or Oregon—such a notion is ridiculous, and if it occurs is counted among the miracles of the present day. So our readers must pardon us.

A general court martial is about to assemble at Fort Dalles for the trial of prisoners.

THE GOULD AND CURRY MINE.—Our readers have heard such wonderful reports of the astonishing products and value of this mine in Washoe that they will be glad to read the following description of the [illegible] mill of that named above, from the Virginia City Union of the 16th July.

The mill is now running 40 stamps and turns out daily from $8 000 to $10 000 worth of bullion. Much of the rock worked yesterday was very rich—the richest silver rock we have ever seen—so rich to look at and so rich to handle. It will describe itself to day in the shape of four or five large bricks worth at least $10 000. Yesterday while we were at the mill they moulded four bricks worth $2 400 each, which were the proceeds of the previous 24 hours run. To the uninitiated the Gould and Curry mill presents the appearance of an establishment that cannot be improved upon, yet improvements are being made and still more are contemplated. Thus far at least $500 000 has been expended upon this mill. All the machinery of the mill works most admirably and nothing is wasted—even the dust itself is so completely corraled that it neither injures nor destroys any one or any thing and is made to contribute its proportion to the silver bricks, and the tailings it worth no more than $10 per ton are corraled in a large reservoir below the mill and brought back to go through again. A good deal of the work is of an imperishable character—neither fire nor flood can damage it—and the arrangements of the mill are such that fire can never consume it. In a few weeks the company will have the most complete machine shop on the Pacific coast connected with their mill, when they will do all their own work, except casting. The personal property now owned by the Gould and Curry Company in the Territory is worth more than $1 000 000, and the mill alone when fully completed, will be worth this amount.

Some people especially strangers wonder "what keeps Washoe up?" and we have heard some wonder "what causes Virginia to grow so rapidly?" For their benefit we will state that the Gould and Curry Company disburse enough money in our midst to support a population of 6 000 or 7 000 persons. In and about the mill and mine and upon the wood ranch, the company employs no less than 600 men, and the mine is now furnishing rock to [illegible] mills. Directly and indirectly the company employs at the lowest estimate 2,000 persons. Now, we have only one Gould and Curry, but then we have a great many other companies, mills and mines and they all contribute their quota, and this is what keeps us up.

CURSES COMING HOME TO ROOST.—The New York Post of July 1st, says: "the Copperheads in the farming communities of the West are likely to reap unpleasant fruits from their malignant persecution of the colored population, whom by legislation and otherwise, they have driven from their borders. Everywhere throughout the great grain producing States there is now a prospect of most bountiful harvests, but in many places the scarcity of labor will prevent the successful gathering of the crops, entailing, it is feared a heavy loss upon the producers. Already in Iowa the farmers are offering two dollars a day as the minimum price for harvest hands, but it may well be questioned whether farmers can afford to pay wages so extravagant, except at the sacrifice of all the profit on the crops and hence help must be looked for by the mass in other quarters. Had not the colored people been kept out by the display of a foolish antagonism, this difficulty would not exist, and even the Democrats are now recognizing the fact, and clamoring for the importation of freedmen, that the harvests may not rot in the fields. They are not sure, however, since the blacks have moved so successfully as fighters, that the farming community can find relief in that quarter and, altogether, they are in a most despondent condition. It is certainly a marked commentary on the hypocrisy of the Democratic pretense that the North would soon be overrun by negroes, who would not only eat up the substance of the people but compete with the laboring classes at prices at once humiliating and ruinous, that they are now clamoring thus earnestly for the identical thing they so vigorously condemned a little while ago."

GENS PLEASANTON AND GREGG.—General Pleasanton, the dashing cavalry officer, who has ridden over Stuart's rebels, is thus described by a correspondent of the New York Tribune:

Pleasanton is a keen eyed, middle sized man on the bright side of 40, whose short brown hair is tinged with gray. His face is pale, and features sharply chiseled. He is polished and affable, and thoroughly a man of the world.

Gen. Gregg is described by the same writer as follows:

He is a tall handsome man, of two or three and thirty. His heavy blue eyes and regular features bear English characteristics. His wavy hair is light and his beard large and sandy. Put him in pegtops and a round hat, and he would typify the class of well known thoroughbreds seen frequently in the London Punch. He is fortunate in having good brigade commanders and good regiments.

WHAT JAMES BUCHANAN SAYS.—A Lancaster (Pa) correspondent of a New York paper says that Major Clymer, of Reading, called on ex President Buchanan and that he expressed his firm devotion to the Union, but strongly denounced the method adopted in conducting the war. He was particularly severe on arbitrary arrests.

The old Pub Func conducted his part of the war beautifully. An arbitrary arrest ought to have been made of him long ago.

ELECTION AT BOISE.—We learn that an election was held at Placerville and Bannock City on the 13th, for Delegate to Congress in their Territory. The people there, it seems, got tired of waiting for Gov Wallace to organize the Territory and concluded they would not be disfranchised on account of his tardiness. His proclamation was issued at Lewiston three days before the election, so their votes will not be counted. We have not yet learned the result of their election.—Washington Statesman.

DELEGATE FOR IDAHO.—Dr Robert Newel of Lapwai, announces himself this week as an independent candidate for Delegate to Congress from Idaho Territory. The Doctor is a Union Democrat and we believe intends to run on that platform.—Wal. Statesman.

Good for you Old Champoeg! [illegible] We don't believe the [illegible] of the Mountains is likely to [illegible] in other hands.

The new road from Walla Walla to Grand Ronde Valley is completed and teams are passing over it. The through trip is made in from two and a half to three days.

PROFESSOR NEWMAN ON THE WAR.—The Boston Transcript [illegible] In a letter dated London June 10th and addressed to [illegible] Sargent, Professor Newman exhibits a sagacity [illegible] which we wish [illegible] would occasionally parallel. He writes as follows:

Lately the troops of the South have into [illegible] like starving wolves can outmarch your armies. If they go with rifles alone and a few days rations, unhindered by cannon and wagon trains and, like Garibaldi in [illegible] they may possibly get through and round you into Pennsylvania and Ohio and destroy us fiercely as General [illegible] Jackson. I am sure that this is the only military policy of the South which can succeed and if I were a Pennsylvanian or a Marylander I should be all alive to fortify and keep vigil at every point of access. This is the only [illegible] except our abominable privateers) on which I feel alarm for you.

I am sorry to feel how low in my estimate many of the English gentry aristocracy and statesmen have fallen, not only as to their morality, but as to their foresight. Those who have substantially [illegible] with the [illegible] who can hold up [illegible] success of the South would have been [illegible] to humanity—still go on deprecating all [illegible] wicked and [illegible] in a tone of [illegible] approval and cannot yet understand that this is a necessary result of the fanaticism of the South which alone is to blame [illegible] Englishmen who have [illegible] the South share the blame largely.

In our last Russian war [illegible] on its long [illegible] very second rate importance where the war went on. At least one thing was certain—the Emperor Nicholas being fanatically resolved to spend his last man and his last musket in the cause of his [illegible] against Turkey—whether we fought in the Crimea or on the Danube or Dnieper would not alter the certainty that no peace could be had until a million of Russians had perished, which I believe is not over the reality. In like manner with a power so fanatical and so able to control its own population as that of which Jefferson Davis is President, nothing short of a destruction of its military capacities can bring you peace.

That this evil is upon you is a terrible loss of Northern life is your calamity, not your fault. I have always called Eastern Virginia a trap, and have deprecated your venturing into it, but whether the bloodshed needed to cripple the South takes place on their northern, eastern or western borders matters little. God grant you a unanimous resolve to use negro regiments to the fullest extent that you can get them! With this resolve your victory is all but won.

THE MISSION OF THE GEORGE GRISWOLD.—Charles W. Denison, under date of June 25th, sends the following communication to the New York Times:

As many inquiries are made of me respecting the mission of the American relief ship, George Griswold, with her cargo of 15 000 barrels of flour and food for the suffering operatives of Great Britain permit me in a few words to state the facts.

The ship was received in Liverpool with many demonstrations of national respect. The civil, military and naval authorities united to bid her welcome. Her cargo was speedily distributed among those in need by responsible parties. Large public meetings followed this distribution in various parts of the districts, at which the people received me as an American clergyman, with much good feeling and enthusiasm. Resolutions were passed at the close of these popular demonstrations, warmly pledging the sympathy of the laboring masses of Great Britain with the struggle of the United States to maintain their Union and their Constitution, as the strong hope of European liberty.

The report that the bread has been wasted by the recipients is entirely erroneous. On one occasion in Manchester—the anniversary of the marriage of the Prince of Wales—there were distributed among the crowd 15 000 penny loaves. There was some rush for them among the people, but not a loaf was wasted. When the character of the gift was explained to them, the recipients were grateful and carried the welcome American bread home to their families.

The facts warrant me in saying that a very large majority of the people of the British Empire are strong for the Union and freedom of America.

I shall be obliged to the editors of our country if they will copy this brief note.

QUITE CORRECT.—Some music teacher once wrote that the "art of playing a violin requires the nicest perception and the most sensibility of any art in the known world." Upon which an editor comments in the following manner: "The art of publishing a newspaper and making it pay, and at the same time making it please everybody, beats fiddlin' higher than a kite."

A lady being asked what business her husband followed, said he was engaged in [illegible] Further explanation was necessary and after a brief hesitation she continued—finishing his time in the State Prison."

Since the first of this year the lumber receipts at San Francisco amount to fifty five millions of feet, besides fourteen millions of laths and shingles.

CITY COUNCIL.—The board met on Wednesday evening, the president in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The petition of the Committee of Arrangements for the celebration of the 4th of July, 1863, praying for a further appropriation of $150, was read and referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

The petition of the foreman of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company, praying that their house may be repainted and replastered, was referred to the Committee on Fire and Water, with instructions that the committee report an estimate of the cost of the work. Several other petitions of no public interest were granted.

A number of bills of expense were read and on motion warrants were ordered to be drawn for the respective amounts.

On motion, the ordinance entitled "an ordinance relative to nuisances," was taken up and read a second time.

The following resolution was read:

Resolved, That the president appoint a committee of three to suggest and receive devices for a corporate seal for the city of Portland, and to report such devices, with such recommendation in reference thereto as they may deem proper, to the Common Council, on or before the second Wednesday in August, 1860."

The resolution was adopted, and the president appointed Councilmen Lucas, Saxon and Monpastes a committee under the resolution.

Councilman Lucas presented a resolution requiring the Committee on Streets and Public Property to examine into the condition of the city cemetery, and report at the next meeting. Adopted.

After the transaction of other business the board adjourned.

FIRST TO ARRIVE.—We understand that a number of immigrants arrived in this city last evening from the Dalles, being the first party to cross the plains this season. They are from Ohio.

EARLY.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades at an unusually early hour last evening. She brought $5,000 in gold dust to Wells, Fargo & Co., and about 200 pounds in the hands of passengers.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday the thermometer again indicated an increase in the warmth of the weather. The cooling breeze prevalent during the past few days had died out in the early part of the day, leaving us exposed to the fierce attacks of Old Sol; but about six o'clock the aforesaid breeze revived again, and cooled the atmosphere. At two o'clock last evening it was 88° in the shade and 108° in the sun.

THE CRITTENDEN PLATFORM.—We see the following among the approved correspondence of a Republican Journal in Illinois which has hitherto been rather noted for its bitterness:

What a splendid speech was that of Crittenden's. It has clinched the wavering loyalty of many honest men, and should be circulated through the length and breadth of the land. It is in such "loyal opposition" as this that the administration will find its best support at home, and its greatest strength abroad. It isn't in the fulsome adulation of office holders and contractors actual and expectant, that it must place its reliance; but upon the Crittenden class, who stand up for the Union first, last and forever—and after that is secured, it will be time enough to discuss the point as to whether we shall have the constitution as it was, or whether it is susceptible of improvement.

FREAKS OF THE LIGHTNING.—Speaking of the electrical storms which recently intercepted telegraphic communication with the East, the Alta of the 20th says:

East of Salt Lake the lightning of the heavens has possession of the wires and prevents the transmission of dispatches by the manufactured article used by the telegraphic operators. The lightning within the past three days has melted three instruments down whilst the operators were trying to get the news through.

SAM HOUSTON.—The Chattanooga Rebel of a late date says that Sam Houston threatens to "take up arms against the Confederacy" unless he is treated more civilly. This agrees with information already published from private sources.

INDIAN MURDERERS.—The Journal says that Indian Agent Logan, through the aid of George Rundell, Esq., and Lieut. Halloran, has arrested three of the Indians suspicioned of murdering some white men on Pelouse river, in June last. They have in a manner confessed their guilt.

OVERLAND EMIGRATION.—The Mountaineer says the first wave of the overland immigration arrived at the Dalles on Tuesday last, and came down to this valley to find homes. They are from Ohio, and have five wagons.

SUSPENDED.—The Dalles Journal announces that it is obliged to suspend publication until Monday next because their rollers have melted from the excessive heat. One of their printers has gone to the mines, too.

Mr. H. Parker of Walla Walla informs us by letter that the vote of Spokane county is as follows: Raynor 12, Cole 56, Turney 22.

MEETING.—The Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will hold their regular monthly meeting this (Saturday) evening at two o'clock, at the Presbyterian Church.

EXPECTORANT

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, and Coughs and [illegible] CONSUMPTION [illegible] The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT

while the SANATIVE PILLS by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs [illegible] perfect [illegible] the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificate, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors.

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co., Pa., Sept 13 1858.

DR. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS [illegible] of some of the most eminent physicians who so skillful treatment of my case did not prevent [illegible] I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for [illegible] three [illegible] I was entirely cured. NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.

J. W. TINELLI, Esq., New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion I began the well known (but not enough known) EXPECTORANT of Dr. Jayne of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man and my general health has never been better.

I remain my dear Tinelli with esteem your servant and friend, J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co., O., May 31, 1860.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been given up [illegible] During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well. J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co., Pa., July 23, 1857.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr. Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true. MERRY WILHELM & CO.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or gall upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

What Caused the War?

[illegible]

Now we come to inquire what is the great cause and controlling spirit of this rebellion with which the country is now concerned? If we would look to the end we must first find the beginning. Two causes have produced this state of things, and if any gentleman in this assembly imagines these causes have been suddenly sprung upon this country he has not been a good political student of the times in which he lived. The first of these causes was the inordinate thirst for political power and domination on the part of the Southern leaders; and the second was the determination to make the political character of slavery the balancing power in the nation. These two things have precipitated the rebellion; they have been the causes working for a long period of time toward this result. If a man of even ordinary capacity had stood on the pavements in Cincinnati during the sittings of the convention which nominated Mr Buchanan and failed to see these elements at work, he must have been as blind as a mole. At that time, and for years before it, this rebellion was determined upon. It was no sudden movement of the Southerners. The first leading motive was an ascendancy in the control of the government of the country. With their subordinates they made the institution of slavery the means by which to secure it.

We are told that sectional elections have produced this state of things. My friends, we have not had an election in this country that has not had these elements in it, excepting one perhaps—that of 1840; for I know, to my deep chagrin, that in every instance where the Democratic party have taken a successful part in the elections of the country they have been compelled to go to the Southern States for their man, or take a man which those Southern politicians had bound hand and foot before his nomination. [Great applause.] When you come down to the election of 1860, which is said to have been sectional in its character, I will show that the election of Mr Lincoln had no more to do with the inauguration of this rebellion than would an act of the Chinese Emperor in his kingdom have done. That it was used as a pretext I will admit, but that it was a moving cause, I deny. These things have been gradually working to their issue for years. The Southern politicians saw what every one else has seen, that on account of the institution of slavery, the political power of the Government was passing out of their hands. They found out long ago, what the world could have told them much sooner, that civilization and material prosperity could not go hand in hand with slavery; they found that, by the laws of population while they were losing in their political character and strength, the virgin soil of this great North west was being occupied with a hardy and thrifty people, who were not only extending the area of freedom, but what they disliked more than all else, extending the area of votes, that the time was not far distant when the States north of Mason and Dixon's Line would control the destinies of this country. What was to be done? Then came up the dogma, that slavery must be the balance wheel in the Government and regulate the admission of free States into the Union. They therefore said to the North, you must adopt the rule that slavery shall go hand in hand with freedom, in order to preserve the equilibrium of power. Well, the Democratic party had shouldered a great many things in its time, till, to use a steamboat expression we used to employ under such circumstances they literally loaded us down to the guards—they gave us, as a Virginian would say, more than we could tote. What was the result? We struggled under it as long as we could, but when they piled on this additional amount, the Democratic resolution staggered at it. They of the South said, it is either that or we will secede and dissolve the Union. I stood upon the pavement in Cincinnati when Buchanan was nominated, and every five minutes I heard that threat from some Southern nabob. You are bound to take this thing, or we will secede. Well, they patched up another compromise, and nominated Buchanan, and he would have been a wise man who could have foretold the result.

Four years of another Democratic administration rolled on, Southern men had got bond and security for another four years, but they were pretty sure it could not be obtained again, for there was nobody that would give it. During that administration it is a notorious fact that men were called into the Cabinet from the Southern States who made themselves busy as bees preparing for this conflict. The Secretary of the Navy sent forth all the ships of the fleet to far distant seas whence they could not be recalled short of a year or two. The Secretary of War took from the arsenals, in the North, all the guns and munitions he could get at, and crowded them into Southern hands, who had been taught to use them. For four years they were busy disarming us, and quietly engaged in placing the arms among themselves. Yet in the face of these facts it is said that they seceded only because Mr. Lincoln was elected! Well, if they did they made an almighty good preparation for that event. [Laughter.] More than that, they actually went to the existing Administration and asked the President, how far will you let us go in our peaceful measures of separation before you bring to bear upon us the power of the Government? Don't you wish Old Hickory had been there to have been asked that question? He would have taken his pipe out of his mouth, drawn himself up, and sworn by Heaven, I will hang every one of you! [Applause.] I say to you, my friends, that right sorry am I that when the pen of the historian fills this page of our history, there will be found many a record over which the patriot will shed tears of shame, and it will not be in the power of the recording angel to blot the record out.

Suppose we admit that they had not made preparation. Let us prove the point from other circumstances. When Mr Lincoln came to take his seat in the Executive chair, what reason was there still for Southern men to raise the hand of suicide against this nation? Why they said "You have been attacking and trampling upon our rights all over this country." I say, how? Pray when? What have we done? The people of the whole country in the regular and Constitutional mode had elected the President just as every other President had been elected. Had we repealed any of the Fugitive Slave Law? Not one; for the week after Mr Lincoln's inauguration a slave could have been taken back to his master as easily as before. Had we enacted any obnoxious laws that interfered with their rights? "Oh no, but you are just going to do it. You have brought the Abolitionists into power, and they will ruin us." A very small body they have been for a long time. I used to fight them very hard, but many years ago I found out that I was fighting a wind mill.

But, they said, "you brought the Abolitionists into power and we are compelled to secede, in order to protect our rights in the future." Why? You have the President. Well he was a Kentuckian by birth and as to his opinions on slavery, I know nothing and care less. You have the President, what else? Well, you have the Abolitionists. Had we the Senate? No, they held a working majority in the two branches of Congress and they had two thirds of the Judges in the Supreme Court of the United States. Now, what was there to justify rebellion under that state of things? Nothing more than the fact that they had determined on it beforehand. Let us see if they determined on it beforehand. There was held in 1860, after the old usages of the Democratic party, a Convention in Charleston. There were a great many men who knew beforehand what was going to come to pass at that time and which did come to pass, and were not considered very sagacious for all that. What was it? There were men there who had determined to create a division between the North and the South, in order to regain this political power, but there stood between them a bulwark more powerful than anything they had encountered before. They stole the guns and the money and everything else, according to their capacity and that was by no means limited, but there still stood before them a power they must strike down, and that power was the Democratic party. That power had stood before them for a quarter of a century. It must be broken down and ground into powder. And at that Convention they struck down the Democratic party, because it was in their way. They knew well enough that if they had nominated Douglas, or James Guthrie or either of half a dozen other men, and given him an honorable support in the South, he would have been elected, and secession would not have had a pretext for inaugurating this rebellion. They therefore struck them down by offering them terms they could not submit to—terms that you would not submit to to day, if offered to you as terms of peace—terms which, if your delegates had submitted to you would have risen against them, and almost massacred them, on their return. They split the party in twain, and adjourned to Baltimore where the same thing was repeated, and it was done for the purpose of getting a pretext for inaugurating the rebellion.

Following this state of things, as inevitable as event follows cause we have the full inauguration of this contest. In the meantime however, the extraordinary desire of the Northern people encompassed the people, but it is folly to go over the history of that body, so well known to the people of the country. Suffice it to say, that no terms could be made—no proposition was entertained, that was not humiliating in its character, even to the border States, and destructive to the peace of the free States. So we come to the day when the first gun was fired upon Sumter, and brought upon us civil war.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 18[illegible]

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them, the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr Malone, restored to health.
